K-STATER

SLICE of the Little Apple
When you're a K-State graduate, you know your alma mater is a special place. It's a place where you learned to think, work, and grow. Now, it's time to give back. The University of Kansas is looking for alumni who want to help support the library. If you're interested, please contact the library at [phone number].

ASK THE Expert
Having the perfect job doesn't mean you're not still looking for it. It's a common mistake to think that once you've found a job, you're done. In fact, you're just getting started. Here are some tips from an expert on how to stay motivated and successful in your career.

Hope for Hale
University Community comes together to assist Hale Library after May 22 fire. The library was closed for several weeks, but thanks to the help of the community, it is now open and serving students.

Miracle IN MANHATTAN
On April 22, Kansas State's football program staged a comeback in the Big 12. The team was down by 14 points at halftime, but they fought back to win the game. It was a true miracle.

An award-winning magazine with tradition

Published exclusively for members of the K-State Alumni Association, the award-winning K-Stater magazine has informed, educated, stimulated, involved and entertained thousands of readers since 1951.

Delivered four times per year

More than 41,000 alumni receive the K-Stater quarterly (March, June, September, December) in print and electronic formats and value it for in-depth university and alumni news, thought-provoking features and profiles and the well-read Class Notes section with alumni updates.

In a clean, uncluttered layout

The ratio of editorial to advertising content is about 80-20, and, as a result, advertising messages are highly visible and prominently displayed in an environment of loyalty and trust.

The K-Stater has a long coffee-table life. Because alumni have a close emotional tie to K-State, they often keep the magazine for months or longer for reading and further reference.

K-STATER ADVERTISING

Showcase your business to more than 41,000 Kansas State University alumni with the K-Stater magazine, published exclusively for members of the K-State Alumni Association.

Don't miss an opportunity to effectively build your brand among this select group of highly engaged and successful K-State alumni.

TERMS

A contract must be signed by all advertisers prior to placement. Advertisers, or their designated agencies, will be billed within 14 working days following publication of each issue. Net payment is due within 30 days. Delinquent accounts may be subject to applicable late fees.

ACCEPTANCE POLICIES AND CONDITIONS

1. All advertising is subject to the approval of the publisher. Publisher reserves the right to reject or cancel any advertising at any time.
2. The K-Stater will accept no advertising that is racially or sexually discriminatory, nor advertising that is deceiving, fraudulent or untruthful. In addition, no alcohol, tobacco or political advertising will be accepted. All advertising must conform with U.S. Postal regulations.
3. The advertiser and/or advertising agency agree to indemnify and hold the K-Stater harmless from and against any loss of expense or claims on suits arising from advertising content, including but not limited to claims or suits for libel, violation of rights of privacy, plagiarism and copyright or trademark infringement. The advertiser is responsible for receiving prior written approval and/or licensing for all advertising that incorporates Kansas State University trademarks, logos or other words associated with the university.
4. Unintentional or inadvertent failure by the K-Stater staff to publish the advertisement shall not constitute a breach of contract.
5. Positioning of advertising is at the discretion of the K-Stater staff. Advertising is allowed only on covers (inside front, inside and outside back) and in the Class Notes/In Memoriam section with the exception of inserts placed at the discretion of the staff.
6. No cancellations will be accepted after space deadline date of each issue.
7. Advertising material will be held for one year and then discarded unless otherwise specified.
8. Advertising rates are subject to change. When new rates are announced, advertisers will be protected at their contract rates until the end of the contract period.
9. Termination before end of contract period will result in 50 percent cancellation fee of unpaid ad costs.
